Concordia women's basketball tournament this weekend

Eight of the top university women's basketball teams will meet at Concordia University this weekend to compete for top honors in the Stingers annual classic tournament.

The host Stingers have to be considered an early favorite. They are currently ranked No. 9 in the nation. The Laurentian Lady Vees and Lakehead Nor'Westers, both tied at No. 10 in the CIAU preseason rankings, will also compete for the tournament crown. Other teams in contention are the McGill Martlets, the Bishop's Gaiters, the Windsor Lancers, the Memorial Sea-Hawks and the Acadia Axettes, who were AUAA finalists last spring.

The game schedule is as follows:

Friday, Nov. 7

Laurentian vs. Acadia - 2 p.m.

McGill vs. Lakehead - 4 p.m.

Memorial vs. Bishop's - 6 p.m.

Concordia vs. Windsor - 8 p.m.

Saturday, Nov. 8

Consolation Games

2 & 4 p.m.

Semifinals

6 & 8 p.m.

Sunday, Nov. 9

7th-place game - 9 a.m.

5th-place game - 11 a.m.

3rd-place game - 1 p.m.

Championship game - 3 p.m.

4 Stingers make football all-star team

Four members of the Concordia football team were named to the Ontario-Quebec Interuniversity Football Conference all-star team last week. Dave Miller-Johnston earned two spots. He was named all-star punter and all-star kicker. Cornerback Lenroy Henry, defensive halfback Loan Duong and defensive tackle Jeff Anderson all made the elite squad. Anderson was also named the outstanding lineman in the conference. He is now one of four finalists for the J.P. Metras Trophy, which is awarded to the top lineman in Canadian university football. The annual CIAU football awards dinner will be held in Toronto on Nov. 20.
